

Gues?

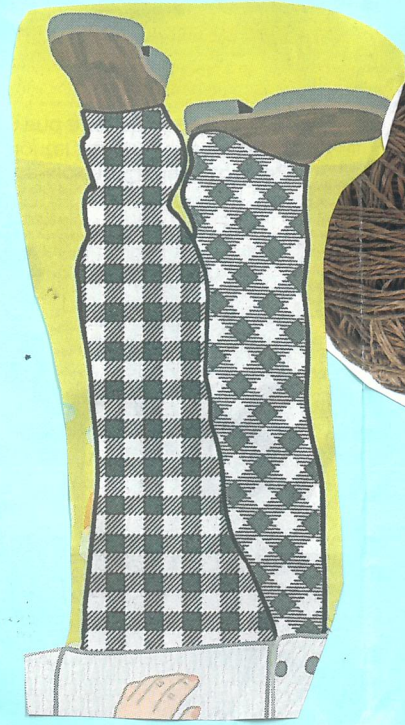

How to wash a heart:
 Remove it.
Animal or ice?
 The curator's question reveals
 Their power style.
 If power implies relationship,
 Then here we are
 At the part where even if something
 Goes wrong,
 That's exactly how it's meant to be.
 Your job is to understand
 What the feedback is.
 It's such a pleasure to spend time
 Outside the house.
 There's nowhere to go with this
 Except begin:
 To plunge my forearms
 Into the red ice
 That is already melting
 In the box.

Ordered, measured

When you have stacked up yourself up again,

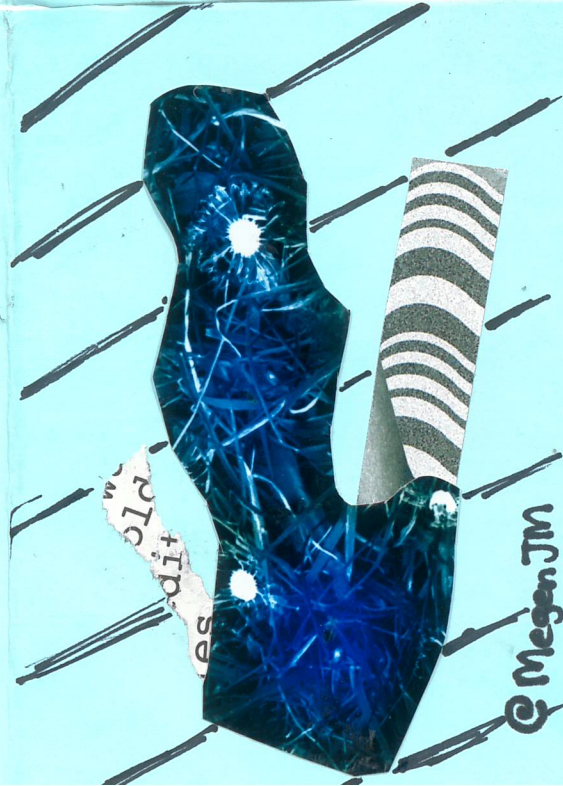

When you have wound this day up as far as it will go

Remember that you are brilliant and beautiful, that this place does not own you or deserve you. That you deserve great things but also small things

Small things
